

If I had to travel to one place.

It would certainly be heaven

Firstly and most importantly to meet Jesus and thank him for saving my life at the age of 7 years

For giving me hope and although I felt scared and lost

I've overcome so much

And taken every step in my stride has it come

Confidently and brave

Like a warrior who has no limits

To tell him because of the one small blessing that he has blessed me with

LIFE

I've lived with such contentment

I've had the pleasure to grow and experience life

I've experienced love, joy, pain, being turned down, failure, success, happiness and fulfillment

I'd say to the good lord thank you for never giving up on me

Thank you for waiting for your prodigal daughter to return home

For having faith in me when I felt that hope was far fetched

I'd sit with the lord

And ask dear lord how is it that you have such patience and tolerance

I'd hear him out and thereafter i would say lord

Now I take my leave as my work on earth is not done. I have a family to see to

3 beautiful children to raise that you have entrusted me with

A business to grow that you have equipped me with skill to do so

A husband to grow old with

It would be the best trip I would have ever taken

I would leave with a heavy heart

But I would be happy when I returned home for I know the plans the good lord has for me is worth the journey back home.

Written By

Jenny Subramoney

