Tell us about yourself, who is Natashia?

A say it, as it is, kinda girl, not afraid to take chances. Too much of heart. Caring. Emotional

What inspired you to get into comedy?

My inspiration comes from the challenges I've faced in life.

What is it like being a female in the industry?

The industry is often spoken about as a male dominated one, however I never felt this way or was never treated this way. I feel like if we assume it is, we create barriers for ourselves. We need to move away from that kind of mentality because it truly limits us. My moto is, "Don't wait for an opportunity, create one!"

Who were your influencers/icons?

My parents, siblings and husband.

Yes! They may not be popular or famous, but to me they are my super heroes. They influence me daily to be the best I can.

You are such a beautiful person, both in and out, you assist in feeding 100s daily, what motivated you to start this initiative?

We grew up in a home where giving back was never a second guess. Those values were instilled in us from very young...now it's rippled into all areas of my life. This time especially is so hard for everyone. So, in a world of turmoil it was absolutely necessary to use this platform as a way to be a vehicle of philanthropy. In a world where we could be anything, be kind!

Tell our readers how they can assist in your feeding program

We do one every week and almost every day, there is a need for food! They can contact me on Info@bashwithtash.co.za or 0671217288. There is no such thing as too small or too big, together we can achieve great things.

You have broken the stereotypical image, tell us how did you break this barrier to become the queen of comedy

Be real, be true to yourself. Ignore the outside noise and negativity. Never defend yourself, cause those who truly love you or know you, will never doubt you. Don't be afraid to fail. Try everything. Do things, they said you never would.

You are a wife, businesswoman and giving back to the community

“BE REAL,

regularly, how do you manage your time?

It's really consuming at times. My husband and family are so very understanding. I pray all the time. I do get very few hours of sleep, but sleep knowing that someone can sleep easily. I try to prioritize my time. My husband supports all my initiatives so we together on this, and makes it so much more fun.

What advice can you give to our youth and especially aspiring comedians

Don't give up! Don't allow people to put you down. It's ok to fail, keep going!

What's your perspective on being the feature of SALT?

I'm truly humbled and honoured. I'm immensely proud of SALT and the youngsters that chose a path of motivation and inspiration. I wish your team success in abundance
